PARAGON INFORMATION COMMONS

THE STORY

Paragon's Intuitive-IC is the system designed to help you prepare for the move from a traditional Library and Media Center to the technology driven environment of the Information Commons.

Taking its roots from simpler times when communities shared communal land, the Information Commons is the modern academic equivalent of a common space used for the processes of information gathering and social collaboration.

It is where enlightenment meets interaction. Knowledge fosters education.

Intuitive-IC lets you address your current storage and display needs while offering collaborative working spaces, technology hubs and seating solutions. You have the tools for practical transformation of your space in the digital age.
